ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, Faithful guide of youth,
Holding high amid the darkness Duty, light and truth;
Still above, the skies attend thee; Still thy stately columns stand;
Still thy sons and daughters love thee, Sing thy praises o'er the land.

All the earth's resplendent beauty, Nature gathered here,
Rolling lawns and trees and grasses On thy hillsides fair;
Happy days within thy shadow, Friends and comrades we have won,
Fill our hearts with exaltation For thy work so nobly done.

When, Beloved Alma Mater, Memory recalls
Other days of youth and laughter In thy gracious halls;
When thy sons and daughters scattered Turn again to thee—
Still thy lamp is brightly lighting Us afar that we may see.

DEDICA

We, the members of the Senior Class, dedicate the 1953 Milestone to one who has shown sincere interest in the students at Eastern, who has the ability to live with people in perfect harmony, and to inspire in those who know him something of his own cheerful philosophy — Mr. William Keene—a gentleman and a teacher.

TION

"We hope you like it"

A mixture of sunshine and shadow
Various views are captured
Vibrant memories of people, events, places
Eastern knew in 1953.

LIFE

"Where do we go from here?" Freshman arrive bag and baggage—YWCA big sisters are on hand to greet and show them around the campus.

"Looks like work ahead!" Freshman learn the do's and don't's of college life during orientation.

"This I like!" Freshmen discover grill and add grillology to their curriculum.

"Golly it's good to be back!" Same girl, same boy, same couch but loads of summer experience to relate.

"Off to a good start." You're always ready when you trade with Freddy at the college book store.

"Read, relax and be merry for classes begin tomorrow."

"Something new has been added!" Lights in the ravine change the beauty of the campus at night.

"The gentle touch." Miss Charmaine Asher, Barbourville entertains with marimba concert.

"Man doth not live by bread alone." Dr. Julian Love of the Presbyterian Seminary, Louisville, discusses the new translation of the Bible.

Time—Late afternoon.
Place—SUB steps.
Subject—Flying saucers, world affairs, girls, lessons, ballgames?

"Guardians of Justice." The installation of the Burnam Hall House Council, a service of beauty, dignity and warmth unites the girls into one big family.

"Waiting to be shot." Milestone begins to materialize with long lines of eager students waiting to have their pictures taken.

"After all baby I'm just trying to tell you—." First and second year students get together for the Freshman. Sophomore party.

"You swept me off my feet—"

"Dance me loose—" Fun is had by all at the many informal dances held in the grill.

"The hand behind the bow." Gerhard Kander in Community Concert.

"I Like Ike." Students are given an opportunity to cast their votes for the presidential candidate in campus wide election—Eisenhower won by 100 votes.

"Spirits Rise." Enthusiastic Students cheer Big "E" on in the big pre-homecoming pep rally.

"Will he get to play?" Dad's night found many anxious fathers viewing their sons at Hanger Stadium.

"Strange names and funny faces often seen in public places" — Especially true at the Halloween Party.

HOMECOMING

"The queen." Everyone looks forward to the crowning of the Homecoming queen at the half-time of the big game.

"Campus beauties" Almost every club on the campus enters a float and selects a queen to represent them on this day.

"Hold that line." Part of the Eastern football team watching homecoming game—Eastern won.

"Dearie do you remember when"—alumni going through cafeteria line at barbecue.

"Fight team fight!" The band serves a dual purpose — not only do they furnish the music but also have their own cheering section.

"The end of a perfect day." Homecoming closes with a semi-formal dance in Walnut Hall.

"Sound off." New recruits struggle to keep up with the old experienced hands.

"Look out below." They work in earnest as the day for the play draws near.

"Un-uniformed." Who works harder than the band?

"Aw come on to the game Bill. Everyone will be there! Even your cat wouldn't miss this event."

"And that's absolutely true!" The stadium is packed early in the afternoon with cheering students and guests—all here to see the fighting maroons.

"Hail! Hail! Eastern Maroons." Sing out the words. Our talented band stages a formation that no one tires of seeing—a big "E."

Ralph Merriam's talk in chapel, "A Layman's Plato," was enjoyed by many students and faculty.

"He's Crazy! Please help me!" "The Man" was presented by the Eastern Players as the first dramatic production of the year.

"Watch the sticks girls and remember—." Hockey is one of the favorite games of the girls each fall — All sport minded females have an opportunity for such sport in physical education classes or WRA.

"Swing and sway with Double K." One of the campus orchestras made up of Easternites that provide music at many of our functions.

"Just ignore that guy with the camera—relax!" Common sight on a nice sunny day.

"That test was a dilly." Worried students leaving classes —must be about time for mid-semester tests.

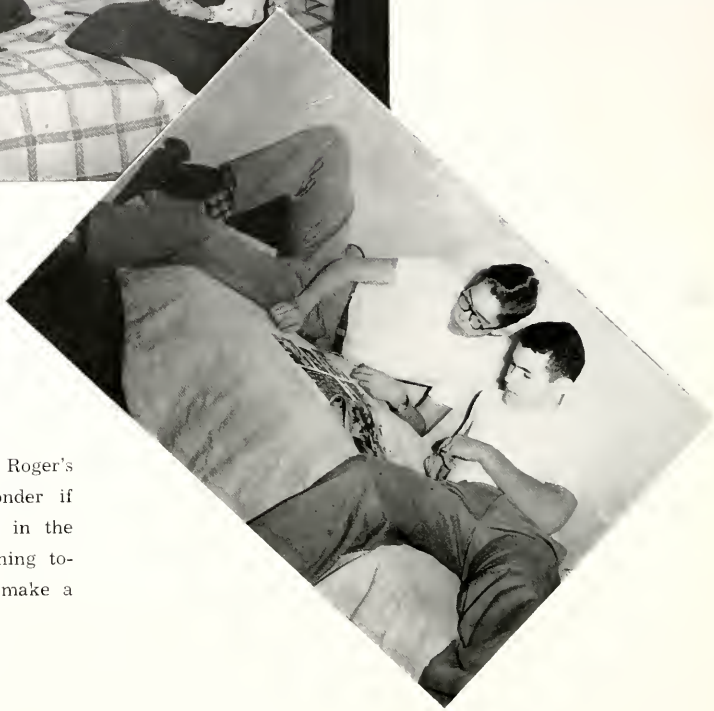
"Local girl makes good." Miss Mary Jo Leeds performs with Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra at Community Concert.

"Not that they're the bashful types, but—" It's the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance and all kinds of costumes make their appearance on that night.

"Swing your partner and promenade." There's fun for all when the faculty get together for an evening of Square dancing.

"Let's get 'em boys." Eastern Maroons rush on the field to play one of the season games.

"Let's quit this card game and stroll over to the grill—Come on I want a coke and besides never can tell who we'll see."



"I'm not interested in Roger's old magazine. I wonder if that cute gal I met in the grill is doing anything tonight, I think I'll make a phone call."

Thoughts such as the ones above probably brought Denyse and Bill together many months ago. Steady couples are a big part of campus life.

Informal gatherings in Walnut Hall provide opportunities for students and faculty to forget their class room relations and talk over many good times.

"And how do you do?" greets Lolly as she goes through reception line.

"This is station WLW presenting 'On Campus.' This week we salute Eastern Kentucky State College."

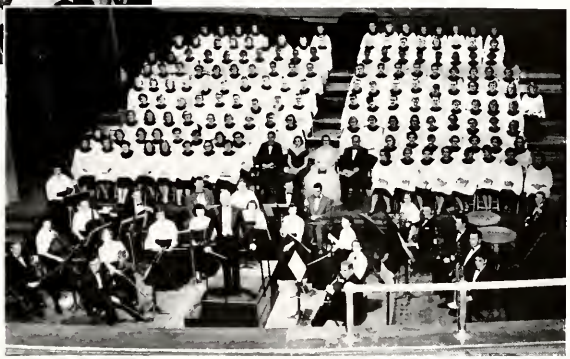
Alicia, Jim, Phyllis, Bill, Bob and Dr. Cuff tell announcer Howard Chamberlain of their school.

"Food, fun and fellowship." Sophomores gather at Benault Inn for pre-Christmas banquet.

"Ten bells, all is well." Burnam settling down for the night presents a serene picture.

"Burnam burning?" No just a practice fire drill that causes impromptu fashion show with a turkish accent.

"One of Eastern's traditions." Amid candle light and holly the Y.W.C.A. presented the twenty-third presentation of "The Hanging of The Greens."



"Hallejuliah! Hallejuliah!" Christmas at Eastern would not be complete without Mr. Van directing Handel's "Messiah."

"Kyma throws a Snowball." The snow queen was crowned amid the rustle and swirl of laughing lads and lassies at this, one of the favorite dances of the year.

"The morning after the night before." Saturday morning in the grill brings out the best points in everyone — anywhere from droopy eye lids to stringy hair.

"Benault Inn" and the scene of the annual Sigma Tau Pi banquet.

"Abundant Living" was the theme of the series of fireside chats sponsored by Cwens at Burnam Hall.

"Term paper due tomorrow." The typewriters sound far into the night as the last minute assignments are made ready.

"It's all over but the memories." At the close of first semester, students receive grade cards and start working on the next schedules.

"Lines, lines, lines." Students rise early on registration morning to try to get to the head of the line.

"Speed demons" of the commerce class that is—.

"Man and land study." Geography students discover many places on maps that they didn't know existed.

"Artis gratis artis" plus art for the sake of grades seems to be the motto of this class.

"Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble" — as the Home Ec. girls try to perfect a new recipe.

"Hammers, nails, saws, and wood" plus skill produce some excellent pieces of furniture in the Industrial Art classes.

"Slide boys, slide — you too Miss Daily"—Throughout the year—Ad. A is the center of music.

"Lab labor." Remember all the Tuesday and Thursday afternoons? Well, these Botany students will.

"Making sweet harmony." The carolers at one of the Community Concerts.

"Let me call you Sweetheart." The Valentine Day dance brought out many old and new couples.

"Dance Ballerina Dance." That's what everyone said after the community concert featuring "Sevtlova," world famous ballerina.

"Behind the 8 ball?" One of the favorite past times in the recreation room is a game of pool.

"Full house" — as students gather for a daily card game after classes.

"Lots of fun" as the coke and latest happenings flow around the grill table.

"Clowning? -- Dancing?" The old juke box plays on to such pieces as "In The Mood," "Oh Happy Day," or "She Wore Red Feathers."

"Paddle on." Most everyone likes to play ping pong, even if it does envolve chasing the ball around the rec-room.

"Choice gossip." Must be Monday morning after a big week-end — maybe OVC hmmm!

"Pregame slick up." Whether Burnam or Beckham the mirror keeps date life from fouling up.

"On the ball." Fast playing such as this won the Maroons National recognition.

"Till I waltz again with you." One of the most sensational shots of the season is this dance by Mulchay and Harris at Dayton game.

"Willie shakes his spear." The Little Theater presents "Twelfth Night" both on campus and at Shakespearian Festival.

"Blue Moon." The quartet sang their way right into the hearts of all the students especially the girls in Burnam Hall with their serenades.

"Jam Session." Bands composed of college students and faculty play for many affairs.

"Assembly sandman." Parksie plays on as students and faculty file into Chapel on Wednesday mornings.

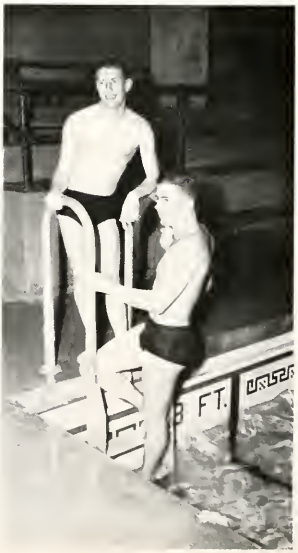
"Campus leaders." Remember the week with all the dressed up people and the Vocational Information Conference?

"The royal court." Mix together a boy and his uniform —Add a girl in a formal-- Blend in a corsage of flowers. Place on the dance floor and season with the music of Clyde Trask—produce—"The Military Ball."

"Allow me!" A fellow and his gal enter the SUB where many social activities are held.

"Let's play post office." There's one place that everybody goes that's to get their male-mail.

"The pause that refreshes!" It must be spring just look at those stares.



How bout a dip? A swim in Eastern's pool offers a relaxing past time for many to get in the swim of things.

"Sullivan Coffee Time." There's nothing like a cup of java in Mrs. Whit's kitchen to make a fellow feel at home.

Sun, sand and smiles. At the first sign of spring students migrate to Boonesboro Beach leaving the cares of school behind them.

"Royalty on the dance floor." The King and Queen of the Junior Senior Prom lead the court in the first dance after the coronation.

"From this day forward." For the last time students enter the administration building as seniors.

"The dawning of the big day" begins with the processional from the Student Union Building to Hiram Brock.

Flags of school and country guide the way.

A penny for your thoughts.

Two members of the 1952 Eastern "Maroon" gridders were selected as members of the first team All-Ohio Valley Conference.

These players were selected by votes polled by the Public Relations Director of the Ohio Valley Conference. They were cast by the coaches of the six conference teams of Eastern, Western, Morehead, Murray, Tennessee Tech and Evansville.

The two "Maroons" were Chuck Schmitt, senior, who was chosen for the position of offensive left tackle, and Alex Kolakowski, senior, who was chosen as the defensive left end.

SEASON'S RESUME

The Eastern "Maroon" gridders opened their 1952 season with an impressive victory over a rugged Toledo eleven. Don Daly scored the Eastern touchdown and the point after touchdown was made by Bill Bradford.

At Huntington, Eastern spotted the Marshall team two first period touchdowns and then fought back in the closing minutes with an 84 yard march to produce a 26-19 victory. Scoring for the "Big E" was made by Daly, George, and Hanlon, with Oakley converting.

On October 4, Eastern came home to play host to Murray. The "Maroons" first home game ended on a dismal note as Murray beat the Eastern team by scoring late in the game to win 10-0.

The gridders suffered their second straight defeat of the season on October 11, 1952, at the hands of Tennessee Tech. The "Eagles" usually effective running game was aided by a sparkling pass attack, which defeated the Richmond crew 28-14. The "Maroon" touchdowns came by Hanlon and Rice, and Oakley kicked the two extra points.

Eastern's hot-and-cold running "Maroons" ran hot at Morehead to come from behind three times to tie the "Eagles" touchdowns and make the final score 20-20. A 31 yard pass play led to the first Eastern touchdown from the 3 by Daly. Jack Bond added the other two touchdowns on short runs and Oakley again converted.

Playing one of their best games of the season, the Eastern team defeated Evansville 35-0 in a Homecoming Day battle. The passing of Linderman and Kidd to Rice and Winscher accounted for three scores. Others were made by Bradford. Oakley once more converted and had a perfect day by kicking five points in five attempts.

A weakened and undermanned Eastern squad fought the "Hilltoppers" of Western on equal terms during the first half of a rough, wide-open game. Bad passes and fumbles proved to be the breaks Western needed to conquer the "Maroons." Eastern's only score came when a Western fumble was recovered on the "Hilltopper's" ten yard line and quarterback Bobby Linderman passed to end, Jim Rice, for the score.

Injuries and lack of manpower on the part of Eastern helped Louisville gain a 34-20 victory over the "Maroons" in the last game of the season. Both Louisville and Eastern fumbled six times with Eastern on the short end of the recoveries. As four of the "Big E" fumbles were turned into scores for Louisville, it can be seen that this was the lacking force in the game. The first Eastern tally came on an 83 yard march climaxed by a 30 yard Linderman to Rice pass play. The second score came minutes later when tackle, Dick Wilson, grabbed a "Cardinal" fumble and ran 50 yards for a touchdown. The last touchdown was made on a pass play, Linderman to Bond. The "Maroons" showed a great spirit in their last game. This is proved by the power of the defensive line to hold the Louisville eleven on the 1 yard line and on the $1\frac{1}{2}$ yard line after two powerful "Cardinal" drives.

All in all the "Maroons" were hampered during the entire season by such jinxes as injuries, fumbles, bad breaks, and lack of manpower. However, as usual the gridders showed good spirit and proved to be a formidable opponent.

With the graduation of seven seniors, Coaches Samuels, Presnell, and Darling have finished spring practice with the remaining "Maroons." The new NCAA ruling concerning the abandonment of the "two platoon" system has brought about much more intensive and extensive training for players who, under the new ruling, will be called upon to play the entire ball game with very few substitutions.

BILL BALES

The OVC Champions, the Eastern "Maroons," placed Captain Bill Bales and high scorer. Elmer Tolson on the 1952-53 All-OVC basketball team, which was chosen by the coaches of the conference team during the half of the championship game of the OVC tournament in Louisville.

Since both members of the team played ball as freshmen, neither were eligible to play for the Eastern five in the NCAA tournament held on March 10. The tournament was held in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Eastern was the only Kentucky team to receive a bid to this invitational tournament.

SEASON'S RESUME

Coach Paul, "the big Irishman," McBrayer lived up to his usual campaign by challenging any national power that was interested in playing his team. The 1952-53 season found the "Maroons" playing such powers as Dayton, Brigham Young, Xavier, Louisville, North Carolina State, and ever powerful Western.

In his seventh season at Eastern and his twenty-second year of coaching, Coach McBrayer won 15 of 23 games to boost his record at the college to 117 victories in 166 games with many outstanding national teams.

The "Maroons" won 9 games against only one loss in conference play to win the OVC seasonal championship and win a bid to the NCAA tournament in Ft. Wayne, Ind. The single loss was to Western.

The Maroons were also runners-up to the Western "Hilltoppers" in the OVC tournament held in Louisville February 26-28. In this tournament the Eastern five matched Murray's slow brand of ball during the semi-finals to beat them 52-43. The finals saw the "Maroons" go down in defeat to the Western rebounding and long floor shots by the score of 70-60.

Without the able services of Captain Bill Bales and high scorer, Elmer Tolson, the charges of Coach McBrayer journeyed to Ft. Wayne to take part in the NCAA tournament on March 10. The lack of these two hindered the "Maroons'" unsually fine game and consequently the Richmond team suffered their first NCAA tournament defeat at the hands of Notre Dame by 72-57. This was the first time in the history of the school that an Eastern basketball team had received such a bid, and more are expected with such teams as Coach Paul McBrayer produces.

FRESHMAN SQUAD

Second row: Linville Reed, manager, Bill Florence, Bill Yeager, Bobby Whitaker, Jack Adams, Coach Russell "Buddy" Roberts.

Under the watchful eye of former Eastern "Maroon" Buddy Roberts, the freshman quintet, playing a limited schedule of only nine games came out the victor in eight of these battles. Their superior rebounding, shooting, and floor play enabled the freshman five to conquer every team they played except Georgetown at Georgetown. In the return game at Eastern, Georgetown was soundly beaten by the "Little Maroons."

BASEBALL TEAM

First row: Mike Short, John Robey, Rudy Bicknell, Brian Gibbs, Jimmy Odle, "Jake" Rutledge.

Second row: Don Richardson, Chuck Herizer, Ed Miracle, Tom McAnallen, Ron Finley, Roy Kidd, John Delaney, Coach Charles T. "Turkey" Hughes.

Third row: Ed McNabb, manager, Buddy Watson, Howard Gracey, Don Feltner, West Spain, Charlie White, Johnny Allison.

With a split record of 8-8, the "Maroon" nine won the Eastern division of the OVC. They met Western, winner of the western division, in the playoffs and were defeated for the 1952 crown two games out of three by the "Hilltoppers." The scores were Eastern-4 Western-3, Western-1 Eastern-0, and Western-9 Eastern-4.

EASTERN TRACKMEN

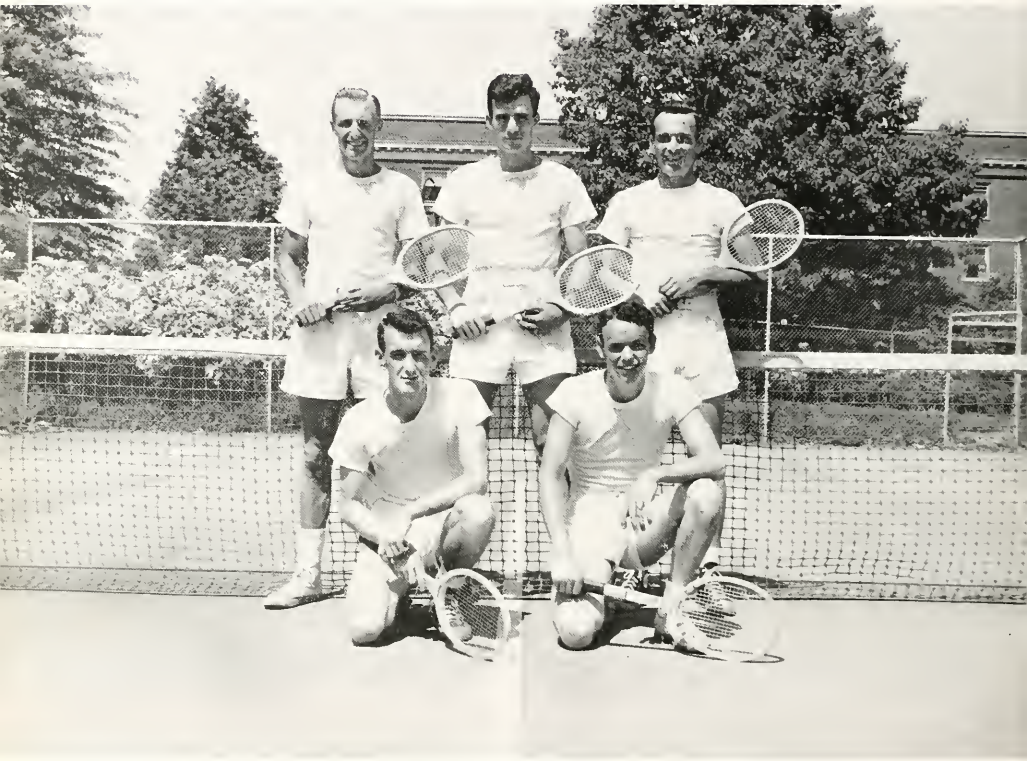
First row: John Paul Jones, Franklin Alliston Gordon Fleck, Don Little, Gene Adkins, Jack Jones, Clay Moore, Coach Fred Darling.

Second row: Harry Holder, Ralph Perry, Jim Hanlon, Henry Mayo, Bill Bradford, Bill Vendl.

Third row: Tom Sammons, Chuck Schmitt, Jim Bingham, Ray Lindenfelser.

The "Maroon" trackmen of Eastern ran their season's record to six wins before bowing out in their final meet to Tennessee Tech. Before this meet the track team of Coach Fred Darling had run their record of two seasons to twelve straight wins. In the OVC meet at Cookeville, Tennessee, the 1952 team placed fourth.

EASTERN NETMEN



First row: Bob Rankin, Harold Roop.

Second row: Don Augsback, Paul Trieschman, Karl Jones.

The Eastern Netmen achieved an impressive season's record in their 1952 season. The netters won all of 14 matches and in the OVC meet finished second in team play and won the doubles crown through the efforts of Don Augsback and Karl Jones.

EASTERN MERMEN

First row: Hugh Brooks, Gene Ray Tompkins, Gordon Fleck, Don Combs, Paul Smith.

Second row: Jesse Reed, Kenneth Durham, Jim Daly, Charles Cronin, Bobby Snavely.

Third row: Bill Vendl, Johnny Noland, Doug Hoffman, Nick DeSantis, manager.

Although the Eastern mermen were not all able to swim in every meet, the swimmers gained an impressive season's record of 4 wins and 6 losses. They were matched against some of the best swimmers in the country and proved a match for any of them. With more emphasis placed on this sport every year, the mermen are looking forward to an even better season next year.

GIRLS' HOCKEY TEAM

The girl's hockey team under the leadership of Mrs. Charlotte McGuire had a record of 1-1-1 for their 1952 season. Over thirty girls were present for the daily 4-5 practices. In this, the roughest of women's sports, the girls become accustomed to the hardships of bruises and skinned knees in their enthusiasm for the sport.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Sprained ankles, skinned knees, and bruises are a near necessity for gaining proficiency in the art of playing the game of girls' basketball. The "Maroonettes" won 3 games and lost 3 games in their 1952-53 season.

CHEERLEADERS

The different "Maroon" teams had the complete support of the student body during the 1952-53 season due to the efforts of the five "noisemakers" known as the cheerleaders. The four girls and one boy led the Eastern fans in producing a great spirit which enabled the "Maroon" basketball team to win the OVC championship.

BOARD OF REGENTS

The members of the Board of Regents are outstanding business and professional men who yet find time to serve the college well. The students are always glad to see them on the campus.

PRESIDENT

W. F. O'DONNELL

"He is friendly to the students."

"Never forgets a name, freshman or senior."

Quotations such as these express the student's admiration for President O'Donnell. His friendly attitude and his understanding sympathy has won him a place in every graduate's memory. The students consider him not only the President of their college but a friend at all times. His foresight into a better tomorrow will continue to lead Eastern in a growing direction. President O'Donnell, Eastern and her students salute you!

DEANS

DEAN WILLIAM J. MOORE

A warm smile plus an always kind word can best describe Dean Moore to the typical Eastern student. Dean Moore is probably best known for his tireless effort in helping the student arrange to meet the requirements for his own individual contract. The Dean's office is one of welcoming atmosphere and where each person frequents in his four year stay on campus.

DEAN EMMA Y. CASE

Dean Case has given able direction to the activities of women at Eastern. In her friendliness and genuine interest in each girl, she shows her conscientious effort to enlarge and improve the life of the Eastern co-ed.

DEAN CHARLES A. KEITH

Eastern is most fortunate in having one of the best known men throughout Kentucky on its faculty staff Dean Keith, a Rhodes scholar, makes a picturesque figure around campus and one who has won the respect and admiration of every student that has ever come into contact with him.

Problems involved in the editing and business management of a college yearbook include picture scheduling, subscription drives, mathematical computations in measuring pictures for the engraver, and copy written.

Yet, Milestone staff members managed to meet the deadlines for the production of the book. A small staff worked tirelessly in preparing this annual, with the hope that it adequately protrayed the year.

Production of a college yearbook the size of the Milestone requires the combined efforts of many people. From the beginning of summer until late spring, some phase of the work is carried on. Many on the staff remain unacknowledged, nevertheless their efforts were of great value.

The yearbook requires many types of talents and abilities.

College newspaper work it not an extra-curricular activity but a real-life laboratory experience. Be the student a journalism major or not, work on the PROGRESS makes him conscious of the social need and responsibility of the press.
